THE COMMENCEMENT

NATIONAL AIR

Oh, say can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming,
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rockets' red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
Oh, say does that Star-Spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?

Oh, thus be it ever when freemen shall stand
Between their loved home and wild war's desolation;
Blest with vict'ry and peace, may the heav'n-rescued land
Praise the Pow'r that hath made and preserved us a nation!
Then conquer we must, for our cause it is just,
And this be our motto: "In God is our trust!"
And the Star-Spangled Banner in triumph shall wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave.

INVOCATION . Bishop Thomas Nicholson, D.D., LL.D.

MOTETTE—Creation's Hymn Beethoven

To God eternal the heavens utter glory,
From them His name afar is heard,
By earth and sea is remembered the story;
Let all mankind receive their word.

Who holds the numberless stars in their places?
Who bids the sun his light diffuse?
He comes with brightness and smiles in our faces,
And hero-like his way pursues.

THE A CAPPELLA CHOIR

ADDRESS . Sir Robert Falconer, F.R.S.C., D.D., D. Litt.,
President, University of Toronto

CONFERRING OF HONORARY DEGREES

HYMN—America

My country, 'tis of thee,
Sweet land of liberty,
Of thee I sing;
Land where my fathers died,
Land of the pilgrim's pride,
From every mountain side
Let freedom ring.

Our fathers' God, to Thee,
Author of liberty,
To Thee we sing;
Long may our land be bright
With freedom's holy light;
Protect us by Thy might,
Great God, our King.

BENEDICTION

HONORARY DEGREES

Doctor of Laws—Sir Robert Alexander Falconer

A scholar, educator, and university administrator, a leader in teaching his countrymen the meaning of the world tragedy and in quickening their patriotism; who unites the preacher's concern for the things of the spirit and the theologian's quest for ultimate realities with the practical sagacity of the administrator of large educational interests; who possesses and exercises the statesman's grasp of the relation of his country to the British Empire in its service to the world.

Presented by Dean Roy Caston Flickinger

Doctor of Laws—Frank William Taussig

Henry Lee Professor of Economics in Harvard University; editor, the Quarterly Journal of Economics; past president, the American Economic Association; member, the President's Industrial Conference; sometime chairman, the United States Tariff Commission; discriminating explorer of the intricate relationships of modern industrial life; eminent contributor to economic thought; friend and counselor of a succession of students, whose heritage is the high inspiration of his teaching.

Presented by Dean Ralph Emerson Heilman

Doctor of Laws—Milbank Johnson

Skilful practitioner and able teacher of medical science; author; efficient and devoted worker for the civic, economic and hygienic welfare of the people.

Presented by Professor James Taft Hatfield

Doctor of Laws—Henry Taylor Terry

The first American to teach American law in a foreign country; now professor of law emeritus in the Imperial University of Tokyo; eminent as the author of notable works on the Anglo-American system of law; and one of the first living authorities in legal science.

Presented by Dean John Henry Wigmore

Master of Arts—Herbert Eugene Griffith

A devoted and respected alumnus of Northwestern University; an interpreter of science and an administrator of power and sympathy; a personality charming and ennobling; and for many years a constructive force in the larger educational interests of this State.

Presented by Professor Winford Lee Lewis

Master of Arts—Aldo Massaglia

A laureate of the Institute of France; a soldier of Italy; thrice decorated for bravery under fire; and a scientist of international reputation.

Presented by Dean Arthur Isaac Kendall

Master of Music—John Mahard Rosborough

Dean of the University School of Music, Lincoln, Nebraska; eminent theoretician; inspiring teacher; a potent force in social welfare work; a leader of men.

Presented by Professor Arne Oldberg
